

wards, and I know we have no way to put them out. But on the other hand, should we allow one or two delegates to stop the function and the progress of the total convention?

It's understood that we have a time limit. It's understood that 90 days was imposed upon us. We would have much rather had a longer period of time in which to deliberate and debate these issues, but we don't. And the reality of the situation is that whether we like it or not, we have a 90-day period in which to draw this constitution up.

So, Mr. Chairman, even though I understand some of the emotion and sentiment that is reflected when we say we don't want to censor another delegate, or what have you, we must have a process for discipline.

Now, I think it behooves every delegate in here who criticizes the motion that was made to offer an alternative process by which we can discipline fellow delegates. I don't think it serves any purpose just to criticize. I think if they are serious and they have shown themselves to be serious, as a part of their criticism they will offer alternatives.

MR. BALDWIN: Delegate Oulahan and delegate Nahikian.

MR. OULAHAN: Mr. Chair, may I suggest that the issue of the motion is now moot, the delegate involved having departed the hall?

MR. BALDWIN: Delegate Nahikian?

MS. NAHIKIAN: Yes. Mr. Chairman, I just think that it is important to establish clearly the record on this issue. Delegate Jones made a motion. Delegate Jones' motion was that the body censor delegate Corn in the following manner, and that is that she not be allowed to continue to speak the rest of this evening.

Prior to debate on that issue, prior to a vote on that issue, delegate Corn herself chose to stand up and announce her resignation as chairman of Style and Drafting, and chose to leave the hall. And I think that we should be very clear and on the record that any removal of the delegate was never even discussed. The motion was never even discussed, and delegate Corn removed herself by choice. Thank you.

MR. BALDWIN: Thank you. Any further discussion?

MR. LOVE: I move the orders of the day.

MR. BALDWIN: The orders of the day have been called for. Those in favor of the Jones amendment --

MR. B. MOORE: Mr. President, you asked for further discussion. I had my hand up.

MR. BALDWIN: No, sir, delegate Brian Moore. We
