

Oral History Program Interview Release

The purpose of the program is to gather and preserve historical documentation by means of the audio and/or visual-recorded interview.

This Release is made and entered into by the

Interviewer(s), Alanna R. Zzohti

and the Interviewee(s), Trevor Higgins

Interviewee(s) agrees to participate in a series of audio and/or visual-recorded interviews with the Interviewer(s) named above. This Release relates to any and all materials originating from the interviews, including but not limited to the audio and/or visual recordings of the interviews, any transcripts or other written manuscripts prepared from or using the recordings, or any images that might be used during the interview or that were created during the interview.

In consideration of the mutual covenants, conditions, and terms set forth below, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) understand that the material will become the physical property of the Gelman Library System of The George Washington University (hereinafter referred to as the "Library"), and that it will be made available in its entirety to researchers and to the general public.

2. The Library abides by all United States copyright laws. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) may wish to assign to the Library all rights of copyright for interview materials.

3. The Library shall have the right to assign this Release (or any of its rights hereunder) to any person, firm, partnership or corporation for any reason and without notice to Interviewer(s) or Interviewee(s).

Interviewee(s):

TJ I own and wish to assign copyright(s), title, and interest in the interview materials to the Library. The Library shall have the right to exploit any or all of the foregoing in any manner and in any media, whether now known or hereafter devised, throughout the universe in perpetuity.

TH I wish to maintain the copyrights I own for this material. Additionally, I hereby grant to the Library, at no cost, the perpetual, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide right to use, reproduce, transmit, display, perform, prepare derivative works from, distribute, and authorize the redistribution of the interview materials in any medium.
