Dear President:

Regards your article (Increasing the Vote) in the August issue of The International Teamster it seems to me that your line of usual good thinking is going on a tangent to the question, which may soon become an issue.

The question is not primarily one of increasing the vote but of the right to vote. When one comes to the age where we can say to him go out and fight our wars he certainly has come to the age where we should invite him to help us decide our political questions.

It would grieve me to see Teamster Union take the negative side of this question and I hope, sir, that you will give this important question further consideration before so committing us.

Yours respectfully

Joe E. Mayhew
