CHAIRMAN BALDWIN: Would the assembly please come to order?

Mr. Secretary, would you call the roll.

MR. COOPER: Delegate --

MR. JACKSON: Excuse me, a point of information. I just want to know when the meeting has come to order of the body, that it does not mean they have accepted the proposal, does it?

SEVERAL VOICES: No. No, sir.

MR. JACKSON: Okay. All right.

MR. KAMENY: In this case, we are simply proceeding but it is not a full committee, for the record?

MR. JACKSON: Right. Right.

The Secretary proceeded to call the roll, as follows:

Delegate Baldwin, here; Delegate Barnes; Delegate Blount; Delegate Bruning --

MR. COOPER: Mr. Chairman, Delegate Bruning is present but phoning the other delegates. Shall I do on or wait for Delegate Bruning?

CHAIRMAN BALDWIN: Please just go on with the rollcall.
