Mr. James P. Ruhl, General Organizer
475 Franklin Street,
Buffalo 2, N. Y.

Dear Sir and Brother:

In accordance with our telephonic conversations the International Union is appointing Vice-President Hickey, Economist Kaplan and yourself to meet with the delegation of the Printing Pressmen and Longshoremen's Unions in New York City on December 11th.

The enclosed telegrams are self-explanatory.

When Vice-President Hickey makes the detailed arrangements with the Pressmen's Union he will inform the other members of our committee so that they may proceed accordingly.

Fraternally yours,

FT/MMH

Dear Sir and Brother:

In answer to your communication of February 26th, 1952, wherein you suggest that I attend the Building Trades' meeting in Jamestown, New York, or delegate someone to attend in my place, it is impossible for me to attend and I have checked with the men in this office and there is no one who can attend.

Fraternally yours,

James R. Ruehl
