

participation of the low-income and less educated voters in our area. You can see the thousands of people who aren't registered to vote. I think it's a cultural thing; it's an educational thing; it's a financial thing.

DELEGATE BALDWIN: Delegate Moore, the Secretary would like to hear the motion you made.

DELEGATE COOPER: Would you repeat your motion please?

DELEGATE BALDWIN: He said he would prefer you submit it in writing to him.

Delegate Harris.

DELEGATE HARRIS: Delegate Brian Moore, I didn't think that it would be necessary tonight to entertain and discuss this motion because you canvassed me, along with you say 15 other people, today to see how we thought about it. I thought that we had discussed it and if ever did it pass, you would not have much participation at the polls to know that, number one, registration is havoc. And if you know the conditions of the registration rules now, with 30 days prior to, you would certainly not attempt to indicate that we ought to have on-sight registration.

Today I thought I gave you an example of how people use other forms of identification for various purposes and that that would be -- we would have the largest number of challenged ballots of any state of people registering on sight.

I also would like to indicate that -- let me finish -- that the culture, finance and economic has nothing to do with those numbers you put up there on that board. It has to do with a lack of voter education programs in the City. And you can have a poll across the street from somebody's house and if they don't understand the reasons and the importance of voting, they will not go over there and vote.

I think what you are proposing is ludicrous.

DELEGATE BALDWIN: Let's refrain from addressing the persons who made the motion. You should address the chair only and we can't have this conversation between delegates.

Delegate Corn, Delegate Jordan, Delegate Barnes, Delegate Robinson, Delegate Blount, Deletage Garner and Mason.

DELEGATE CORN: I too speak against the motion. The reason is it's not a matter necessarily of finance or education. That same finance, that same education and cultural things can be done prior to the 30-day limit of registration. If you were to allow people to register and vote at the polls on election day, even if you assumed that we had the most
