

What we did was, we called ourselves simplifying it by stating "The Governor may appoint members of Boards and Commissions with advice and consent of the legislature. Term of the office and procedure of removal of such members --"

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: Before we go that far, Delegate Simmons, we have Section A and the minority report, which should be --

DELEGATE SIMMONS: No, I did not go --

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: Oh, I thought you went to term of office.

DELEGATE SIMMONS: No, I did not go that far.

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: I'm sorry.

VOICE: You interrupted her before she finished.

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: Didn't you finish?

DELEGATE SIMMONS: Yes, I did. I read the whole thing. I was just explaining it when --

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: All right, Delegate Corn, will you please present the minority report.

[There is a request for a rereading and Delegate Simmons complies.]

DELEGATE KAMENY: Is a question in order at this time or later?

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: Let me let her read the first line again because Delegate Shelton wants it repeated.

DELEGATE KAMENY: Will you let me know when a question is in order?

DELEGATE SIMMONS: Yes.

DELEGATE CORN: Look, I have a minority report.

DELEGATE KAMENY: I am merely trying to establish when I may ask a question.

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: Delegate Simmons, will you read that line again?

DELEGATE SIMMONS: "The Governor may appoint members of Boards and Commissions and heads of principal departments with the advice and consent of the legislature.

"The term of the office and procedure of removal of such members shall be as prescribed by the Constitution or by law."

CHAIRPERSON HARRIS: Okay, thank you. If you followed Delegate Simmons, she clarified the language in section 9, Boards and Commissions, subsection A, which now reads [repeats as above.]

The minority report shall now be read for subsection A. Delegate Corn.

DELEGATE CORN: First let me ask, does everybody have a copy of the minority report? If you don't, please put
