Mr. Edward H. Meyer,
Taft Hotel,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir and Brother:-

Your telegram received and as per your request, am enclosing record of local 4481. You will notice that the $1000.00 has been applied as purchasing 10 initiation and 3300 per capita stamps. In making out our quarterly report, will credit this sum of money as coming from the Joint Council.

Also enclosing audit reports of this local made by you sometime ago, so you will know exactly the standing of the local. I am unable to give you the balance in the Bank, at your last audit as none appeared on the audit sheet.

While you are in New York, see Secretary Cohen of local 4343 as we have a check here for $398.10 drawn on the Labor Bank, which as you know has been closed. Cohen promised to take up this check, before the end of the year or sometime during the month of January, if possible, so see what you can do about this matter.

With best wishes, permit us to remain,
Fraternally yours,

General Secretary-Treasurer.
