Nov. 19, 1913

D. J. Tobin,
 New Richmond Hotel,
 Seattle, Wash.

According to letter received entire membership of Local six fifty-four went on record to notify general office to secure Bonding Company to issue bonds to release men now in jail connected with local five thirty-seven. Have you any advice to offer. Will do nothing until I hear from you.

Jennings wires that one hundred two men have been locked out in local three ninety-four because they refused to surrender membership in local.
