

Oral History Program Interview Release

The purpose of the program is to gather and preserve historical documentation by means of the audio and/or visual-recorded interview.

This Release is made and entered into by the

Interviewer(s), Kimi Yonamine

and the Interviewee(s), Ari Albalak.

Interviewee(s) agrees to participate in a series of audio and/or visual-recorded interviews with the Interviewer(s) named above. This Release relates to any and all materials originating from the interviews, including but not limited to the audio and/or visual recordings of the interviews, any transcripts or other written manuscripts prepared from or using the recordings, or any images that might be used during the interview or that were created during the interview.

In consideration of the mutual covenants, conditions, and terms set forth below, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) understand that the material will become the physical property of the Gelman Library System of The George Washington University (hereinafter referred to as the "Library"), and that it will be made available in its entirety to researchers and to the general public.
2. The Library abides by all United States copyright laws. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) may wish to assign to the Library all rights of copyright for interview materials.
3. The Library shall have the right to assign this Release (or any of its rights hereunder) to any person, firm, partnership or corporation for any reason and without notice to Interviewer(s) or Interviewee(s).

Interviewee(s):

AA I own and wish to assign copyright(s), title, and interest in the interview materials to the Library. The Library shall have the right to exploit any or all of the foregoing in any manner and in any media, whether now known or hereafter devised, throughout the universe in perpetuity.

AA I wish to maintain the copyrights I own for this material. Additionally, I hereby grant to the Library, at no cost, the perpetual, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide right to use, reproduce, transmit, display, perform, prepare derivative works from, distribute, and authorize the redistribution of the interview materials in any medium.

Interviewer(s):

KY I own and wish to assign copyright(s), title, and interest in the interview materials to the Library. The Library shall have the right to exploit any or all of the foregoing in any manner and in any media, whether now known or hereafter devised, throughout the universe in perpetuity.

KY I wish to maintain the copyrights I own for this material. Additionally, I hereby grant to the Library, at no cost, the perpetual, nonexclusive, transferable, worldwide right to use, reproduce, transmit, display, perform, prepare derivative works from, distribute, and authorize the redistribution of the materials in any medium.

4. In the event the Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) assigns copyright to the Library, the Library will have the right to use this material for any research, education, advertising, and publications (including print or internet publications) or other purpose.

5. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) release the Library, and its assignees and designees, from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of the material, including but not limited to any claims for copyright infringement, defamation, invasion of privacy, or right of publicity.

6. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) understand that the Library will care for the material in a manner that will best provide for its preservation and at the same time make it most readily accessible to researchers. Should any part of the material be found to include portions that the Library deems inappropriate for retention with the collection the Library may dispose of such materials in accordance with its procedures for disposition of materials not needed for the Library's collections.

This Release may be revised or amended by mutual consent of the Interviewee(s), Interviewer(s), and the Library on behalf of the George Washington University.

Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s), have read, understand and agree to the above terms and conditions. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s), warrant that they have the right and power to enter into and fully perform this Release and to grant The George Washington University the rights herein granted. Both Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) agree that they are over 18 years of age, or they have the approval of my parent or legal guardian if they are under the age of 18. Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) understand that this contains the entire understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter and cannot be changed or terminated orally. The provisions shall be binding upon Interviewee(s) and Interviewer(s) and their heirs, executors, administrators and successors. All rights, licenses and privileges herein granted are irrevocable and not subject to rescission, restraint or injunction under any circumstances.
