Dear Sir and Brother:

Regarding your statement about Marty Christen enjoining the branch in Los Angeles, I had an opportunity of talking to him the other day and asked him about his activity in that direction and he informed me that the representative of the branch in Los Angeles was not only dealing with the C.I.O., but was short in his funds in excess of $900.

It was to block his further activity in trying to swing the organization and to protect the balance of the funds that he applied for the injunction.

This, I think, should clear up this matter.

Respectfully yours,

John P. McLaughlin
