Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Sir and Brother:

Request is hereby made for a charter for office workers employed by trucking and transportation companies in this area. Some office employees are already members of office employee union.

Several delegates at our last meeting held Monday, February 7, requested that the office employees at many offices have requested affiliation with the Teamsters International. A potential membership of two thousand five hundred is involved.

The Executive Board of this council will assist in the organization of these members.

Fraternally yours,

TEAMSTERS' JOINT EXECUTIVE

November 17, 1950.

Mr. Rudolph Tnam, Secretary,
Local Union No. 356
25 Taylor St. Rm. 300
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Sir and Brother

My purpose in writing you at this time is to call your attention to the International Constitution, page 20, Article VI, section 10 (b), which states. " It shall be compulsory upon the local secretary-treasurer to send in the name and address of every member in good standing to the office of the General President, quarterly, in order that the members may receive the magazine and keep the mailing list revised at all times.

We are advised by our Mailing Department that your Local Union has never complied with the above quoted section of the International Constitution and has never submitted a list up to the present time. This list should be kept up to date.

You are hereby requested to comply with the Constitution as it pertains to this subject matter.

Fraternally yours,

ACTING FOR DANIEL J. TOBIN
GENERAL PRESIDENT.
