Dear Mr. Thom:

I misplaced the letter describing the enrollment of people interested in making annual contributions to the Corcoran Gallery.

This project interests me very much, indeed, and I have just written Director Williams as per copy attached.

Here's hoping you are meeting with success. You deserve the thanks of all of us for helping to maintain the effectiveness of this great institution.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Thom:

On returning to Washington, I have received your letter of March 31st inviting me to become a Charter Member of the Corcoran Gallery of Art. I appreciate the importance of the Gallery's objectives, as you state them, but I am carrying a very heavy budget for contributions and I must ask to be excused from becoming a Charter Member.

Sincerely yours,

Charles E. Hughes
