

DAVID TILLEY

■ dt37405@yahoo.com ■

Education

M.S. in Health Policy, the George Washington University, School of Public Health and Health Services, Washington, DC + Graduate Certificate in HIV/AIDS Studies

Expected Graduation May 2009

Member, American Public Health Association, HIV/AIDS and Public Health Education & Health Promotion Sections

B.S. in Political Science, Appalachian State University (ASU), Boone, NC, May 2003

Public Policy Concentration

Public Management Concentration

Professional Experience

National Association of Public Hospitals and Health Systems (NAPH), Washington, DC: October 2004 – October 2007

■ Policy Analyst: January 2007 – October 2007

- Conducted policy research and analysis including monitoring and analyzing legislative and regulatory activities, literature searches, surveys of NAPH members, quantitative analysis of NAPH member self-reported and Medicare cost report data.
- Performed quantitative analysis of hospital and health care reimbursement policies using Microsoft Excel and Access.
- Summarized, drafted, and presented policy analysis findings for senior staff and NAPH members.
- Prepared reports on health policy issues for dissemination to NAPH members and other stakeholder audiences.
- Assisted with monthly NAPH Safety Net Financing Initiative (SNFI) calls and NAPH State Health Policy calls.

■ Legislative and Policy Analyst: October 2004 – December 2006

- Participated in all aspects of NAPH's advocacy strategy, including planning and facilitating legislative events.
- Assisted NAPH meet its goals for Strategic Initiative Number Four: Increasing Political Clout by providing collaborative support and extensive research for the Political Clout Pilot Program as well as coordinating the 2005 NAPH Fellows Program.
- Researched, drafted and edited letters, talking points, briefing reports, and other written materials for staff and NAPH members.
- Represented NAPH on Capitol Hill, at Hill briefings, Medicaid Commission meetings, and at other coalition meetings.
- Informed members of current news and NAPH services by actively updating and maintaining the NAPH website.

Government Relations Coordinator: SmithBucklin, Health Care Group, Washington, DC: March 2004 – October 2004

- Researched, analyzed and monitored legislative and regulatory issues for six health care clients utilizing Hill contacts, Westlaw, internet research engines, national and state newspapers, and various on-line health policy subscriptions.
- Coordinated and managed client fly-ins for lobbying activities on the Hill and meetings with Agency officials.
- Researched and coordinated all physician-member AMA CPT and Medicare RBRVS coding questions.
- Drafted client proposals and assisted with other projects for the Vice President of Government Relations.

Intern: Office of United States Senator Tim Johnson, Washington, DC: January 2004 – March 2004

- Provided research and administrative support to the Senator's Health Legislative and Research Assistants.
- Briefed staff members on committee hearings and responded to constituents' concerns regarding healthcare issues.

Temporary Research Assistant: StateNet, Client Services Team, Washington, DC: January 2004 – March 2004

- Researched and analyzed legislation and regulations for multiple Fortune 200 clients and prepared daily reports for management.
- Analyzed the potential impact introduced legislation and new regulations would have on clients.

Recognition

- 2002 President Harry S. Truman Scholarship Finalist (www.truman.gov)
- Honors Fellow and Prestigious Scholar (ASU)
- W. H. Plemmons Leader Fellow (ASU)
- Omicron Delta Kappa, Nat'l Leadership Honor Society
- Pi Sigma Alpha, National Political Science Honor Society
- Pi Gamma Mu, National Social Science Honor Society
- Phi Eta Sigma, National Freshman Honor Society

Publications

Tilley, David, Kate Leeson, and Charles Luband. "A Brief History of Medicaid DSH." The Safety Net 20, no. 1 (Spring 2006): 32-33.

Software

Proficient: Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Dreamweaver; Exposure to: Microsoft Access, SPSS, SAS, HTML